“HENRY M. GOLDMAN” AWARD 2019

The Italian Society of Periodontology and Implantology is pleased to inform those wishing to submit one or more papers for the ‘H.M. Goldman’ prize to be awarded during the 19th International Congress (Rimini, March 21 to 23, 2019), that the material should be sent by February the 11th, 2019 for review and acceptance by the Scientific Committee.

Papers submitted may cover basic research, laboratory research or clinical research (clinical trials or innovative surgical techniques) provided they pertain to the different aspects of scientific and clinical research in periodontology and implant therapy.

The paper should be sent in English language and should:

- be composed of a short abstract (max: 200 words) and a text divided into Introduction, Materials & Methods, Results, Conclusions and Bibliography;
- not be exceeding 3.500 words and be accompanied by no more than 7 figures and tables;
- be sent in electronic format by e-mail to: segreteria@sidp.it.

The submitted paper must be original and not previously published or presented in any other congresses.

Selected papers will be presented in English during the first day of the International Congress (Rimini, March, 21st 2019).

Excluded manuscript may be selected for presentation as electronic posters in the Research Forum. The Research Forum will be held on Thursday March the 21st. Rules for submission and presentation for this Forum are published since Friday October the 1st 2018 on the website www.sidp.it, section "Announcements of Competition and Awards 2019".

Two of the presented works, one for basic/laboratory research and one in clinical research, will be awarded the “Henry M. Goldman” Prize and receive the sum of € 2,000. The Prize will be assigned by a Commission composed of an international panel of experts nominated by the SIDP Executive Council.

If, based on its indisputable judgement, the Commission deems that none of the papers is especially noteworthy, no prize will be assigned.

The Commission reserves the right to award the available prizes to the two worth of notice papers even if they belong to the same category (clinical research and basic research).
