RESEARCH FORUM

M. CAGIDIACO AWARD 2022

for the best clinical case of non-surgical periodontal therapy

RESERVED FOR DENTAL HYGIENISTS

The Italian Society of Periodontology and Implantology (SIDP) on the occasion of its 22nd National Congress 2022 (Rimini, 10-12 marzo) as part of the session entitled "Research Forum - M. Cagidiaco Award", will offer to SIDP Dental Hygienists Members the opportunity to present and discuss their scientific studies in the field of Periodontology and Implantology related to Dental Hygiene.

The papers to be presented must be related to evidence-based and patient-centered dental hygiene practice, relating to:

- Clinical studies and basic research on topics related to the prevention of periodontal diseases;
- Clinical case studies on innovative methods of periodontal diseases prevention;
- Motivation and communication strategies to improve patient compliance in periodontal therapy.

The 5 best papers accepted by the Commission (in charge of the pre-selection and composed by the Coordinators of the Research Forum 2022 and by a member of the SIDP Executive Board) will be presented in the form of ORAL PRESENTATION as part of the "Research Forum – M. Cagidiaco Award". The Commission will evaluate the oral presentation by assessing: The clinical relevance, objectivity, materials and methods and their suitability with respect to the objectives, the consistency of the findings with respect to the results, ethics, scientific value, potential clinical significance, originality of the work and clarity and display capacity of the Presenter.

During the event, the SIDP Evaluating Committee will award the M. Cagidiaco Award 2022 consisting of a financial reward of € 1,000 and free one-year subscription to SIDP as Dental Hygienist. The winning work will be published on the website of the Society www.sidp.it.

Abstract submission

The abstracts - written in Italian or English - can be sent until February the 5th 2022 only and exclusively using the appropriate preformed form available on the website www.sidp.it (COMPETITIONS and AWARDS section).

Only on-line submitted abstracts will be accepted for evaluation. Acceptance will be communicated by e-mail from the SIDP Secretary within the 21st of February 2022.

The Author who will present the work during the session is required to pre-register for the 2021 International Congress SIDP. Failure to pre-registration will result in the cancellation of participation in the session.

Each Author may present only one abstract but co-authorship in others will not be limited.

Previously published or presented abstracts cannot participate in this prize competition.
